Marietta Police Detectives are investigating a shooting that occurred at 239B Cole Street early Friday morning. Officer M. Bishop was on patrol on Cole Street and was driving northbound near the intersection with Roosevelt Circle when he heard a gunshot. Officer Bishop exited his vehicle and began a foot pursuit of the suspect described above. Other Marietta Police Officers responded to the scene. A victim was located at 239B Cole Street and was transported to Kennestone Hospital in critical condition. Several witnesses were taken to Marietta Police Headquarters for interview. A Cobb County Police K-9 team assisted in searching the area for the suspect. The suspect was not located. No motive has been determined for the shooting. A search warrant will be requested for the house. The case remains under investigation. Anyone with information can call the Marietta Police Anonymous Tip Line at (770) 794-6990.

As of 3:00am it is unknown if the incident is related to the Cobb County Police chase that ended at the Chattahoochee River. If a connection is made between the two cases I will make notifications.
